

Narragansett School System

TITLE: Math Interventionist

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Interventionist is directly under the supervision of the building Principal and Assistant Principal. He/she will provide targeted intervention instruction to Tier 2/Tier 3 students in the area of mathematics.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Valid RI Secondary math certification
- 20 (minimum)-30 hours of Mathematics coursework
- Experience teaching secondary students
- Must possess a thorough understanding of how students learn mathematics
- Demonstrated understanding of adult learning strategies
- Demonstrated ability is using assessment data to inform instruction
- Experience working with students who have gaps in mathematics achievement adjustments to instruction when necessary
- Knowledgeable about differentiating mathematics instruction
- Knowledgeable about Microsoft software applications (Word, Excel), as well as database program(s) for student management
- Math Recovery AddVantage trained (preferred)

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Provide targeted mathematics intervention to students before school, after school, and/or push in / pull out sessions within the day.
2. Validate and progress monitoring of students as needed.
3. Maintain accurate records and prepares reports for teachers and principals.
4. Provide teachers with professional development; in-class consultation, assistance, feedback and modeling through a structured and well scheduled program.
5. Work with teachers to use assessments, student work, and other data to analyze current practice and identify areas improving and aligning curriculum and instruction across and within grade levels.
6. Work hours will be flexible to accommodate student needs.